

DAPPER DAVE TAYLOR

Licensed Mortgage Originator NMLS #901285

With a background in ministry and sales, David began a career in the mortgage industry in April of 2012. He is very passionate about educating people about the purchase or refinance of their home. Realtors and Builders choose to work with David as a referral partner because of his constant communication and candid honesty throughout the process. Clients continue to give excellent feedback about their loan experience with David at the end of every transaction. They know he values the relationship and understand he will do everything he can to make the loan process as smooth as possible.
